MAGNIFICENT MAGNET MAKING

The Shorncliffe Pottery Club is running a magnet-making competition! Create a magnet celebrating one of the following - Shorncliffe, Sandgate, 4017, Einbunpin, or pottery and ceramics. The maximum size is 8cm x 8cm and can include landmarks, building, history – pretty much anything goes! Members can enter up to four magnets each, with two prizes, one for the Most Creative, and the other for Best Celebration of the Topic. Judging will take place at the Shorncliffe Pottery Club on July 25. The magnets will be displayed and sold at the Einbunpin Festival and 4017 Open Studios.

RISE TO THE OCCASION

If you've mastered the basics of sourdough making and want to stretch your skills even further, book in for the Next Level Sourdough workshop happening in Sandgate. Run by Leah Hutchinson, the class will cover working with different flours, add-ins and flavoured bread, alternative shaping, managing your starter, fun with scoring and stencils, and an introduction to baguettes.

"People need to have already attended my beginner workshop, or be confident making a basic sourdough loaf, to attend," Leah said. "If people have any special sourdough interests, let me know and I'll do my best to include them."

Participants are asked to bring three containers of one-litre capacity to take their dough home. Refreshments and all equipment are provided.

The class is held on Saturday, 13 April at 56 Connaught Street, Sandgate. Tickets are $117.79. To book go to eventbrite.com.au and search for Next Level Sourdough 2024.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS MEET UP

The next Meet & Mingle – Women in Business event is being held on Friday, 19 April at 6pm at The Full Moon Hotel.

Launched in 2023 by two Sandgate professionals, Kassi and Lucinda, the Mingle is for everyone – the business owners, CEOs, students, side hustlers, freelancers, young rising stars, leaders, retirees, women not currently working, women that work for others. The more the merrier.

Expect to make a friend, see familiar faces, learn something new, be inspired, feel challenged, ask questions, feel a connection, offer advice, solve a problem, or even find a mentor. Kassi and Lucinda pride themselves on keeping the event friendly and casual, saying, "There are no tickets, no strings, no agendas and no memberships."

You can RSVP via Facebook, or just turn up on the night. Meet & Mingle is held at the Moonlight Bar at the Full Moon Hotel, which is the main bar downstairs. There is some light catering and drinks on arrival.
